

International Extension Programs (IEP) University Study in USA

This program offers an excellent opportunity for international students to broaden their academic experience by studying on a campus of one of the largest university systems in the U.S., the California State University System. Our campus, California State University, San Bernardino (CSUSB) offers more than 70 undergraduate and graduate degrees and students can choose from a wide range of courses to enhance their academic credentials. The program allows students to choose available university credit-bearing courses at undergraduate level to fulfill prerequisites, degree or elective requirements. Academic credits earned at CSUSB may be transferred to students' home institutions.

Students can enroll in 10, 20 or 30 weeks of instruction at undergraduate level with 12 units of credit per quarter. Minimum requirements: TOEFL score of 500 (173 computer-based, 61 Internet-based) or IELTS 5.5.

Enhance your experience by staying with American families through our Homestay program or experience American university life by staying at the university residence.
